MIAMI TOWNSHIP – State Representative Joe Uecker (R-Miami Township) announced today his endorsement of Ed Humphrey in his bid for Clermont County Commissioner. Humphrey is in his 19th year serving as Miami Township Trustee.

“I am excited to see Ed Humphrey run. With his experience, honesty and integrity, he is clearly the best choice for Clermont County,” Uecker said. “Ed Humphrey’s 40 years of serving the public along with his business experience allow him to relate to the needs of people across the County.”

Joe Uecker is in his fourth year as a state representative representing the majority of Clermont County. He has also agreed to serve as treasurer for Ed Humphrey’s campaign.

Humphrey is running for the Republican nomination for Clermont County Commissioner against embattled Commissioner Mary Walker.
